

The Training team hopes that you will find the new layout more intuitive and easier to use. Below is some text to explain where to click to get to different areas of the Website.

The image shows a screenshot of the NHS website dashboard for a user named Zoe Turner. The dashboard features a dark blue header with the NHS logo and the text "Health Research Authority". Below the header is a dark blue banner that says "WELCOME ZOE TURNER". The main content area is divided into six boxes: "Course Search", "My Calendar", "Messages", "My Courses", "My Awards", and "My Resources". A footer contains the copyright notice "© 2016 accessplanit. All Rights Reserved.".

Callout boxes provide the following instructions:

- Health Research Authority logo: If you have clicked on Course Search and want to come back to this front page, you can click on the Health Research Authority logo and you will be brought back to this first page.
- Course Search box: If you want to search for courses, you will click in the Course Search box.
- Messages box: If the Training team have any messages regarding courses, they will post them in the messages box.
- My Courses box: To view courses you are booked on to or courses that you have completed, click in the My Courses box.
- My Resources box: If you want to find materials that are linked to courses you are booked on to, you can find these in the My Resources box.
- Menu icon: If you click on the square below you can find more options e.g. your details and logging off.
