Chair's overview of the past year:

During 2017/2018 there were 10 full meetings of the Committee and 11 Proportionate Review sub-committees as well as 32 sub-committees to deal with substantial amendments. This is a considerable workload and I am very grateful to the REC members who give their time to support the ethical review of research and to the staff who continue to provide support both to the REC and to the researchers who submit applications.

This year we were pleased to welcome Dr Louise Taylor as a new member of the Committee, bringing membership up to 13. As a result we have become much less reliant on the kindness of co-opted members from other RECs to ensure that meetings are quorate.

I am delighted to report that in March 2018 the Committee achieved full accreditation following audit. This is a great achievement and reflects the excellent work undertaken by Anna Bannister, Ewan Waters and all the Committee members.
